OVERDOSE D'AMORE WORLD TOUR 2024

THE ITALIAN WORLD STAR WILL RETURN TO THE GERMAN STAGE
IN SUMMER 2024.

- After ZUCCHERO "SUGAR" FORNACIARI enchanted more than a million people around the world on his last tour - in Germany alone, more than 85,000 visitors* experienced a world star at his musical peak - he is preparing to bring all his energy and his extraordinary band back to the stages of Germany as part of a world tour in 2024. The international "Overdose D'Amore World Tour", in which Zucchero will offer audiences an evening of great music and pure excitement by performing all his most successful and popular songs from his incredible career, will begin with three shows at London's Royal Albert Hall on March 30 and 31 and April 1 and take him to Bonn (11.7.), Fulda (12.7.), Regensburg (19.7.) and Ulm (21.7.) for four open-air shows in July. Further stops include Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Iceland and Bulgaria before he returns to Italy for four stadium shows.

ABOUT ZUCCHERO

The Italian singer, multi-instrumentalist and songwriter Zucchero has topped the album charts in his home country 13 times. He is considered the father of Italian blues and, with over 60 million albums sold and numerous gold and platinum awards, is one of Italy's most influential musicians. Collaborations with superstars such as Bono, Sting, Miles Davis and Macy Gray impressively underline the status of this exceptional artist. The new documentary film "Zucchero - Sugar Fornaciari", directed by Valentina Zanella and Giangiacomo De Stefano, was recently presented at the 18th edition of the Festa Del Cinema Di Roma.
